About CSU Libraries

The mission of CSU Libraries is to support the University's curricular, research, cultural and community service objectives by providing resources, instruction and other services that promote and enrich intellectual and personal growth and scholarship.

CSU Libraries’ goals are to:
1. Contribute to the enhancement of student learning by providing library/information resources, instruction, technology and staff in support of the University's curricular objectives.
2. Improve upon the libraries as places in order to make them vital, dynamic centers for learning.
3. Improve and increase outreach activities in order to heighten awareness and appreciation of the libraries' role and value in the academic life of the university.
4. Focus on quality in all endeavors to ensure excellence.

CSU Libraries maintain two facilities: the Schwob Library on CSU’s main campus and the Music Library in the RiverCenter for the Performing Arts on the University’s uptown campus. The Libraries’ collections contain over 375,000 volumes, in addition to a wealth of electronic resources.

“...No university in the world has ever risen to greatness without a correspondingly great library... When this is no longer true, then will our civilization have come to an end.”

— Lawrence Clark Powell
What are Friends for?

Friends promote CSU Libraries as the campus premier information resource and affirm their importance to Columbus State University.
