

Friends of CSU Libraries

Columbus State University
Columbus, Georgia

About CSU Libraries

The mission of CSU Libraries is to support the University's curricular, research, cultural and community service objectives by providing resources, instruction and other services that promote and enrich intellectual and personal growth and scholarship.

CSU Libraries' goals are to:

1. Contribute to the enhancement of student learning by providing library/ information resources, instruction, technology and staff in support of the University's curricular objectives.
2. Improve upon the libraries as places in order to make them vital, dynamic centers for learning.
3. Improve and increase outreach activities in order to heighten awareness and appreciation of the libraries' role and value in the academic life of the university.
4. Focus on quality in all endeavors to ensure excellence.

CSU Libraries maintain two facilities: the Schwob Library on CSU's main campus and the Music Library in the RiverCenter for the Performing Arts on the University's uptown campus. The Libraries' collections contain over 375,000 volumes, in addition to a wealth of electronic resources.

What are Friends for?

Friends promote CSU Libraries as the campus premier information resource and affirm their importance to Columbus State University.

Friends foster interest in books, reading and libraries and enhance the image of CSU Libraries as the intellectual hub of the campus.

Friends encourage gifts and bequests to further the growth and excellence of CSU Libraries.
